The text

Billy is twelve years old ,and his sister is fifteen .It was Saturday yesterday ,and Billy's father gave him fifty pence .There is a big tree in Billy's garden ,and he climbed it and sat in it .He likes that place in the tree very much .

Then Billy looked at his fifty pence and said , "I 'm going to go to the market tomorrow on my bicycle , and I'm going to buy some seeds with this money .Then I'm going to plant them under this tree .I'm going to have a lot of flowers and fruit and plants , and I'm going to sell them .

"A lot of people are going to come to my garden every day, and they're going to buy my nice flowerers and fruit and plants, and in the end I'm really going to have a lot of money .Then I'm going to grow up and go to university, and I'm going to be a doctor.

"Then my sister will come to me and say, 'Doctor, Doctor, I've broken my left arm! Please help me! And I'm going to set her arm "

The sky was blue, the weather was hot, and Billy was tired after that, so he went to sleep in the tree. But then he fell out of the tree and broke his left arm. His mother took him to the doctor, and she set it.

New Year's Eve in Scotland

By Julie Mac Alistair

It's December 31st, New Year's Eve in Scotland It's the time when the Scots celebrate the arrival of the New Year.

People usually have parties in their houses .They sendto friends and decorate their houses withballoons and banners saying "HAPPY NEW YEAR".

They also buy presents and prepare delicious food.

On the evening of December 31st people dress in their bestand go to parties .They dance, eat and have fun .When the clock strikes twelve everyone shouts "HAPPY NEW YEAR"! They all join hands anda traditional Scottish song, "Auld Lang Syne "This song tells us to forget the bad things and all be friends .Then every body exchanges gifts .People often set off magnificent fireworks in the streets too .Soon after midnight people visit their friends and neighbors, .The first man to enter a house brings good luck with him

New Year's Eve is wonderful. Every one has fun and feels happy .It's a perfect way to welcome the New Year.
